62 Bodies Are Recovered from Tornado Ruins

Twenty of 150 Injured Are Expected To Die Before Night—All But a Few Buildings in Rock Springs Blasted—Floods Threaten More Destruction to Oklahoma.

Rock Springs, Tex., April 13 (AP).—A tornado that struck this inland town last night took a toll of at least 62 lives and injured about 150 persons, some fatally. The twister was the most disastrous in this section to Oklahoma.

Sixty-two bodies had been recovered from the ruins of the town before noon today, 33 of which had been identified.

Of the injured, twenty were expected to die before night. Most of the unidentified dead were Mexicans. Relief workers took possession of the town early this morning and more were arriving.

The town was lashed into ruins in a few minutes by a twister from the northeast which razed all except a few buildings, roaring down a two mile path.

Highways Flooded. Flooded highways leading from Uvalde delayed arrival of scores of volunteers, while a detachment of cavalry from Fort Scott and rescue parties from other nearby towns converged on Rock Springs.

Plans were under way to remove the injured and dead to Uvalde as soon as transportation could be secured, as there were no suitable buildings at Rock Springs.

The usual sardonic pranks of the twister were in evidence. A baby was hurled fifty feet through the air and landed safely, almost gently. T. K. Newell, an automobile salesman, in the midst of the wind, rushed into the splintering Valentine hotel to save whoever he might. He continued to extricate dying and wounded after the hotel was in ruins.

The storm came from the northeast with little or no warning just after dark, according to survivors. Few buildings were left standing as the tornado howled on into the blackness.

Fire broke out soon after and the post office and a restaurant, two of the shells still withstanding the wind, were burned.

Relief Workers Delayed. Relief workers, including physicians and nurses from San Antonio and Kerrville and a detachment of troops from Fort Clark, were delayed in arriving, with aid on account of storm damaged roads.

With a population of 800, Rock Springs, center of a sparsely settled post-railroad section in southwest Texas, is one of the most isolated towns of the state. It is located on a rocky dome of 2,000 feet elevation, highest county seat in Texas, east of the Davis mountains.

Only the native stone construction of many of its buildings is believed to have saved the town, so openly exposed from complete destruction.

The identified dead: Robert Dillit, editor of the Edwards County Leader, and four members of his family.

Mrs. W. J. Adams. Mrs. Pennington and two members of her family.

Two children of J. Billings. The Rev. S. Piers, of the Rock Springs Methodist Church. Mrs. S. Piers and two children.

J. T. Cowden, his wife and two children. Charles Herrington. Charlie Baker. Charles McMain.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis. Judge Griffith and two children. Guy Henderson and three children.

Floods Threaten More Damage. Oklahoma City, Okla., April 13 (AP).—Floods today threatened more damage to Oklahoma, where a series of tornadoes yesterday claimed at least five lives and injured a score of persons.

The most severe of four distinct tornadoes yesterday ripped through a section ten miles in length in central Oklahoma, killing four men and a woman in Muskogee and before counties. It jumped into Arkansas where it took two more lives at Fort Smith.

Scores of wrecked buildings, marked by their path across the Oklahoma-Arkansas border.

Three tornadoes were reported in Cedar county in northern Oklahoma. Several buildings were destroyed but no one was known to have been killed.

Heavy rains accompanied the storms, to send the north Canadian, Mississippi and Grand rivers out of their banks. The streams had only started to recede after cloud-bursts last week that caused heavy flooding and in which a score of persons drowned.

Flood conditions broadcast at Tulsa caused farmers to flee from the Arkansas river valley.

Another was divided into an east and west section by the Arkansas river. There were signs of the river flooding, as a threatened rise in the Arkansas river was which it poured into the main channel. Hundreds of persons had abandoned their homes.

Runaway After 10 Years. New York, April 13 (AP).—After a separation of more than 10 years, John William Roper, thirty-year-old "straw boss," has been reunited with A. O. Brown, whom he married in 1909, and will leave soon for Europe on a "round-trip" tour.

Sarkies Sent To Reformatory

Youth Pleads Guilty to Assault, Second Degree. After Three Jurors Are Accepted to Try Him—Gets Minimum Sentence.

Michael Sarkies, 20 years old, was sentenced to the Elmira state reformatory until discharged by law, when he entered a plea to assault, second degree, in county court this morning. Sarkies was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of rape, first degree, and a second count of assault, second degree for an attack on a 6 year old girl last June. Sarkies escaped with a minimum sentence.

It is alleged that Sarkies enticed a six year old girl into the Popular Restaurant on the Strand where he was employed and attacked her. He was placed under arrest by Officers Healey and Reardon shortly after the alleged crime and charged at that time with rape, first degree. The little girl was taken to the Kingston City Hospital where she was treated by local physicians. After a hearing in city court Sarkies was held under $8,000 bail for the action of the grand jury and that body found indictments charging the serious crime and also the lesser crime of assault. Chris J. Flanagan represented him in police court and on trial in county court.

At the opening of court District Attorney Traver moved the trial of the indictment and the matter of selecting a jury was commenced. Eight jurors were examined and three were accepted. One juror stated on examination that he had read the case and had formed an opinion of "guilty" and he would carry that impression into the jury box. He was excused by consent, and examining a half dozen more jurors a recess was taken and after a conference Mr. Flanagan announced that his client had decided to enter a plea of guilty to the second degree count in the indictment, assault, second degree. The plea was accepted by the court.

Court went into recess until 2 o'clock and the jurors were excused until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Reduce Speed to Conserve Fuel

Airmen Hope Fuel Supply of 385 Gallons Will Last Long Enough to Allow Them to Remain in the Air Until Thursday Afternoon.

Mineola, N. Y., April 13 (AP).—Unmanned of signs of a gathering storm, two civilian aviators today listened only to a motor that had roared steadily through a day and a night, droning off the hours in their attempt to bring the world's duration flight record back to America.

Clouds hung low over Long Island early today and the local weather prediction forecast rain, but it was said these conditions would have no effect on the attempt of Clarence D. Chamberlin and Bert Acosta, former army flier, to stay in the air fifty hours.

The plane was throttled down to eighty miles an hour as it cruised over Mitchell field. Speed had been reduced steadily since the plane hopped off at 3:30 a. m. yesterday. Through slower flying the airmen hope to conserve their fuel supply of 385 gallons long enough to allow them to remain in the air until tomorrow afternoon.

Rest was secured by the fliers in alternate naps on a mattress bank in their Wright-Bellanca monoplane. Their food consisted of coffee, soup, sandwiches, water and chocolate bars.

If the fliers are successful in their present attempt, the machine will be overhauled and entered in competition for the $25,000 Orteig prize, to be awarded the winner of a non-stop flight from New York to Paris.

If they are able to remain aloft until 6:42 o'clock tomorrow morning they will have broken the world's record of 45 hours, 11 minutes, established by Drouth and Landry at Etampes, France. By 5:25 o'clock tonight they will have broken the American record of 24 hours, 4 minutes, set by Kelley and MacReady.

Slain by Wife And Her Lover

Authorities By Chicken Dinner and Kind Words Induce Mrs. Raser to Confess that She and Frank Van Sickle Killed Her Husband.

Newton, N. J., April 13 (AP).—Chicken dinners and kind words formed the novel "third degree" used by authorities here to induce Mrs. Sadie Raser, 42, of Sandy Stone township to confess that she and her lover, Frank Van Sickle, 37, a boarder, killed her husband 18 months ago.

Mrs. Raser was said by Prosecutor Vaughan to have confessed that she and Van Sickle had planned to do away with her husband several months before his body was discovered in a wood a half mile from his home. Blood stains found on his shoulder and the ground were believed at the time to have been caused by injuries suffered in a fall, and the coroner issued a burial permit giving heart disease as the cause of death.

Mrs. Raser and Van Sickle disappeared about six months later. Acting on gossip and the insistence of the dead man's relatives, authorities exhumed the body and found death was caused by a bullet wound through the heart.

Van Sickle was arrested here April 4 after an automobile accident, when he was recognized by a state policeman. Mrs. Raser was brought here through a ruse from Unionville, N. Y., where she and Van Sickle were said by police to have been living.

Prosecutor Vaughan said the confession of Mrs. Raser was obtained through kind treatment, although she had been subject to almost constant questioning. As a result of her confession, Chester Raser, her son, was arrested as a material witness. He is said to have admitted burying his father's clothing in order to destroy evidence.

GRADE CROSSING NEAR GRAND GORGE ELIMINATED

Albany, April 13.—The Public Service Commission yesterday designated Wyckoff crossing, located about one and one-fourth miles north of Grand Gorge Station in Roxbury, Delaware county, on the Ulster & Delaware Railroad, for elimination and closed the proceedings instituted by it relative to the school house crossing, about 250 feet distant.

School house road is an important town highway leading westerly to Hobart. Wyckoff road is used principally by one property owner who lives some distance southwest of the crossing, his property being on both sides of the railroad.

Wyckoff crossing will be eliminated by closing the highway to the public within the right-of-way lines of the railroad and diverting traffic to a new highway about 500 feet long on the west side of the railroad to the school house road at an estimated cost of $1,500. To eliminate the school house crossing would require an overgrade or undergrade structure, cost of which would not be warranted at this time by present traffic.

The plan for the elimination of this crossing was approved by the railroad officials and the Department of Public Works, and the town did not oppose it.

The railroad company is directed to prepare plans and specifications for the work, to acquire the necessary land for the new highway, and to construct the same.

NEWBURGH MAYOR UPHOLDS SUNDAY BENEFIT SHOWS.

At a meeting of the city council in Newburgh on Monday night the members by a split vote refused to accede to the Ministerial Association's request to withhold permits granting the privilege of conducting Sunday performances on special occasions.

The council by a vote of two to three decided that on each occasion a request to conduct such a performance was sought, special legislation would be required.

The Ministerial Association had sent a petition asking that all Sunday performances whether for a benefit or not be refused the permission of the authorities to be staged.

Mayor Spencer declared after the council had voted to uphold the practice of holding benefit shows that he deemed it a most Christianlike act to hold performances on Sunday for the alleviation of suffering. He said he felt assured that no attempt to denigrate Sunday was made by holding the performances, and highly commended the recent action taken by the American Legion of Newburgh when it held a performance for the benefit of recent sufferers.

Highland Man Fined. Allen Carlisle, 45, of Highland, pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication in Poughkeepsie police court Monday and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail or fined $30.

He was unable to pay the fine and was arrested Sunday night when he appeared at Poughkeepsie police headquarters and announced that he has no home and no place to sleep.

Walter Going to Spain. London, April 13 (AP).—The Prince of Wales started for Paris today on route to Spain for a ten days visit with the king and queen. He will stay at Biarritz for a week and arrive in Madrid April 23.

Suspension of Armour Grain Co.

World's Largest Grain Trading Corporation Ordered Suspended From The Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, April 13 (AP).—The Armour Grain Company, the world's largest grain trading corporation, has been ordered suspended from the Chicago Board of Trade under charges of dishonest and wrongful acts. Privileges of the company as to trading through the board were ordered removed effective Saturday.

No officers of the grain company have been suspended but the board of trade directorate in its statement last night said such officers would be brought to trial later. John Kellogg, who is president of the company, said the concern has no statement to make concerning the suspension "at this time."

The Armour family is understood to hold large interests in the company which was organized in 1890. Suspension of the Armour Grain Company has come at a time when the state legislature, through a special committee, is investigating practices in the grain trade in Chicago.

It was the outcome of two years of investigation by the board of trade into the organization and subsequent wrecking of the grain marketing company, an ostensibly cooperative enterprise formed by the Armour Grain Company, the Rosenbaum Grain Company and Rosenbaum Brothers Company, with eventual control to go to farmers who were expected to buy stock in it.

New Development On Hurley Road

Maple Arch Farm, Near Hurley, Subdivided Into Building Lots—Streets Laid Out—Rapid Development Expected.

County Clerk John H. Saxe, who some time ago purchased the Maple Arch farm formerly owned by Howard Myer, located four miles from Kingston, near Hurley, has made a subdivision of the property, which has been surveyed and plotted by George E. Wilber, C. E. The farm house has been sold to George E. Bates with some acreage. In the subdivision there has been plotted 91 lots averaging 50x200 feet.

Four streets have been laid out, being Hillcrest, Fairview and Riverside avenues and Cedar street, the latter being approximately 500 feet long with a row of cedar trees, the total of the street lengths being over 2,000 feet. The Kingston-Elmville state highway runs through the center of the subdivision.

At the northeast runs the Esopus creek with rocky shore where there is good bathing as well as fishing. The N. Y. O. & W. Railroad skirts the east side. The roadways of the streets being of earth are ideal for horseback riding.

Mr. Saxe, who developed Cool Ridge Park at West Hurley, which was plotted with a number of lots, there and the remaining parcels will be taken up soon by prospective applicants. Owing to Riverside Park being but a short distance from Kingston on the state highway, Mr. Saxe is confident of seeing a good sized settlement of city people there in a year or two.

BOY STRUCK BY AUTO, TURK HELD

Number of License Plate Taken by Sawkill Road Resident Corresponds to License Number of Car Owned by James Turk.

James Turk, who resides at the corner of Mill and Chambers street, was placed under arrest today by Deputy Sheriff James Moynihan when he picked up the car. The license number of his automobile corresponded to the one taken by G. Richard Kirchner of the Sawkill road when his five-year-old son was run down on that thoroughfare by an Essex car on Monday at 2 p. m. The driver of the car did not report the accident.

Turk will be arraigned before a justice of the peace today in the town of Ulster.

The injured boy is in the Kingston City Hospital suffering from a broken vertebrae in his neck. The broken vertebrae was revealed when an X-ray was taken of the injury. He is under the care of Dr. Chester R. Van Gansbeek, who pronounced his condition as serious.

Former Owner Of His Word. Auburn, N. Y., April 13 (AP).—Attacking a woman about his neck to make death doubly sure, Arthur V. Lick, 42, farmer of Sumnerhill, blew off the back of his head with a shotgun this morning in the barn on his farm. The body was found hanging to a beam by the son, Floyd, who had been working with his father only a few minutes before Mr. Lick had been in ill health all winter.

Pay Water Born Son. Wednesday, April 20, is the last day that the water born son may be paid without fee at the water board of the city hall.

Red Labor Unions On General Strike

Cantonese Troops Faced With Fighting Both Along the Yangtze and in Shanghai—Twenty Strikers Killed.

Shanghai, April 13 (AP).—Chiang Kai-Shek's Cantonese troops today found themselves faced with fighting both along the Yangtze and in Shanghai itself.

Northern forces, following up their recent successful advance across the Yangtze to the south bank near Kiangyin, half way between Nanking and Shanghai.

At the same time the red labor unions here, aroused by Chiang's attempts to suppress them, went on general strike. Fifty thousand men are idle and union leaders claim many more will follow.

Disorders broke out in the native sections of the city. Two attacks were made on the defense barriers of the international settlement, although the leaders claim the strike is not of an anti-foreign character.

Parading strikers attacked the headquarters of Chiang's troops in the Chapei native district. The soldiers fired, killing 20 of the attackers and wounding the remainder.

Official advice telling of the crossing of the Yangtze by the Northerners said that General Chang Chung-Li, Cantonese commander in that district, was fleeing toward Shanghai.

Foreign observers here believe the Northerners have determined to strike while the iron is hot. In view of the split between the moderate Cantonese faction headed by Chiang and the radical section represented by the red labor unions and reflecting the policies of the Cantonese extremists at Hankow.

THREE-CORNERED LAW SUIT OVER GWINNETT AUTOGRAPH

Albany, N. Y., April 13 (AP).—When Button Gwinnett, Georgia signer of the Declaration of Independence, affixed his signature as a witness to the will of Joseph Stanley, of Savannah, Ga., in pre-Revolutionary days he unwittingly laid the foundation for a three-cornered lawsuit more than a century and a half later.

The suit, centering in the ownership of the Gwinnett autograph, was set for hearing before Supreme Court Justice Ellis J. Staley, in Chambers here today.

Gwinnett was killed in a duel in 1777, while still a young man, and his autographs are exceedingly rare. The signature on the Stanley will, purchased from the collection of Elliott Danforth in 1912 by the late Colonel James H. Manning of this city for $4,000, a record price at that time, was sold in 1925, after Colonel Manning's death, by Dr. A. S. Rosenbach of New York for $22,500.

The purchaser was allowed credit for six months. In the meantime, the state of Georgia laid claim to the document, alleging that it had disappeared from the archives of that state prior to 1913. Dr. Rosenbach thereupon returned the autograph to the Anderson Galleries, declining to pay for it because its ownership was contested. The Anderson Galleries then brought suit against Dr. Rosenbach.

POUGHKEEPSIE PREPARING FOR FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

Thomas Whalen, chairman of the convention committee making arrangements for the Hudson River Volunteer Firemen's Association celebration to be held in Poughkeepsie on June 21, 22 and 23, has announced that preparations are being made to accommodate at least 10,000 people who are expected to visit the Bridge City when the firemen hold their convention. It is expected that twenty-eight companies will participate. Besides the array of fire-fighting apparatus about 1,400 men will take part in the parade.

Rapid Hose Company of this city has already made arrangements to attend the event. Excelsior Hose Company will attend, headed by its own band. The Edgelyville volunteer fire department will represent that community, and Marlborough and Highland Hose Companies will be there.

The New York State department has ordered Gardland's World War Veterans' Band of the 27th Division to head it in the parade. The band will also give a concert in the State Armory on the last day of the convention, June 23.

HELP FOR BOYS WHO DON'T SWEAR, SMOKES OR DRINK

The will of Allen M. Clark, who died recently in the town of Ithaca, Dutchess county, has been admitted to probate by Surrogate Daniel J. Giesman. Mr. Clark bequeathed Oakwood Seminary, the sum of $10,000 to be used in aiding young people to study there on the ground that they do not use profanity, do not smoke and do not use alcoholic liquors.

Dr. Samuel Flood 25. David Samuels, the East Strand fruit dealer, was fined $5 in police court today by Judge Shufeldt. He was arrested several days ago for using the sidewalk in front of his place for displaying fruits and vegetables.

Two Escape from Poughkeepsie Jail

Scour Mid-Hudson Valley in Vain For Escaped Prisoners—Jailer Suspended, Sheriff Asks Grand Jury Investigation of the Escape.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 13 (AP).—Deputies directed by Sheriff Close of Dutchess county scoured the mid-Hudson valley in vain today for Louis D. Bailey, 28, and Harvey Davis, 25, prisoners who escaped from the county jail atop the court house in the heart of this city early today after locking Homer J. Flagler, jailer, in Davis' cell. Flagler has been suspended from duty by Sheriff Close and the sheriff has asked District Attorney Reynolds for a grand jury investigation of the escape.

Although all the other 35 men in the jail were offered opportunity to escape, none took advantage of it and all promptly gave the alarm. Davis engineered the plot, unlocking his cell door with a key made of a spoon and then frightening Flagler with what he said was a foot-long knife, but which investigators declare was a short piece of broom handle. With Flagler safe in his cell, Davis called Bailey, who was scheduled to be tried Monday as a fourth offender and faced a life sentence under the Baumes laws if convicted, and after the other prisoners refused to follow, the pair went to the jailer's office, took $150 of Flagler's money from a desk, descended an unlocked freight elevator to the rear of the ground floor of the court house, and left through the rear door, scaling a ten-foot high iron gate.

Davis was charged with assault for holding up 14 motorists on the Albany Post Road near Fishkill at the point of a shotgun. Sheriff Close believes the men separated at the court house gate, but he has been unable, with the aid of state police, to find a trace of either.

Building Lines Busy in Kingston

Every Section of City Showing Activity as New Buildings Are Erected or Existing Buildings Improved.

That mechanics in the building lines are busy in this city is evidenced to observers who travel about in autos or auto buses. In each section of town new residences are in course of building, notably on Pine street, Derrenbacher street, in the Linderman and Washington avenue section, along Hurley avenue toward Hurley, O'Neil street and streets adjoining.

Contractors are busy on the Sam Bernstein & Co. improvements on North Front street, on the John J. McCabe building, 236 Wall street, formerly the Mohican Market; on the former Kingston Opera House building, Fair and John streets, where 22 modern offices are being built upstairs; opposite at 235 Fair street, the building owned by George B. Styler, formerly occupied by M. Westbrook Snyder, is being reconstructed, the old front from sidewalk to roof to have a modern front; the work of excavating for basement and foundation for the large J. J. Newberry Company store on the old site of the St. John's Episcopal Church, Wall street, is being rushed, and work is progressing on the newly built St. John's Church on Albany avenue, also on the Broadway Theatre on Broadway. Opposite this theatre the foundation walls are being laid for a two story brick structure for Hyman Reuben.

Painters and others of the building trades are busy modernizing the former General George H. Sharpe residence which was moved to the rear of The Governor Clinton Hotel. In every section of town painters are busy on contracts for exterior and interior improvements. Soon the addition to the Kingston City Hospital and the changes to the Orpheum Theatre on lower Broadway, will give employment to more men.

James Sweeney Faces Life Imprisonment

Elizabeth, N. J., April 13 (AP).—Life imprisonment today faced James Sweeney, 24, of New York city, for the part he played in the murder of John P. Ent, mail truck driver, and the robbery of $151,700 here seven months ago.

A jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree against him last night. The jurors recommended life imprisonment. Supreme Court Justice Kilgus in his charge pointed out that the state failed to connect Sweeney with the actual slaying. He said however, Sweeney must be found guilty of murder in the first degree or acquitted.

Sweeney was named with William "Doc" Wagon, Crowler, James Kilgus and Edward Purcell. Crowler killed Crowler, reputed leader of the band of seven, in a fight over the stolen money, and himself was slain by police. Purcell is fighting extradition in New York.

MAN FOUND SHOT TO DEATH IN GARAGE

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 13 (AP).—A man and his wife were taken to police headquarters early today for questioning by detectives investigating the murder of Nathaniel Pellet, who was found shot to death in his garage yesterday afternoon.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. James Zandri, declared they had not seen Pellet in several weeks.

Pellet's body was found by his wife after she had searched all day for him. He apparently had been shot as he stepped from his car early yesterday.

A new outbreak of a food that claimed three lives in a restaurant shooting affray in February, 1925, is on the minds of police as working on an examination with Pellet's death. The man was a witness to the slaying.

Her First Novel Won $10,000

New York, April 13 (AP).—The daughter of E. W. Howe, Kansas author, has won a $10,000 prize for a novel—the first about her home town.

She is Mrs. Mabel Howe Farnham, wife of Dwight T. Farnham, a consulting engineer here and her husband has lived in New York five years but the literary work that she brought her attention to with Archibald, Norway and is called "The Bell."

The prize was donated by Hugh Mould and Company publishing, Fictional Review and First National Pictures Inc. In a contest of "first novels" fifteen hundred manuscripts were submitted.

Hotel Netherland Tower Ablaze, Firemen Helpless

Firemen Fight Vainly To Lift Water on Blazing Wooden Scaffolding Atop 38-Story Hotel—Homes of Wealthy Slightly Damaged.

New York, April 13 (AP).—City officials were pondering today the difficulties of fighting fires atop fireproof skyscrapers.

It was impossible to get water last night on a blazing wooden scaffolding atop the $10,000,000 38-story Sherry-Netherland apartment hotel, which is under construction at Fifth avenue and Fifty-ninth street.

The scaffolding extended around a 16-story tower atop a 23-story main building. Firemen were helpless. They had to watch the fire burn itself out.

Fireproof construction apparently is all that is claimed for it, for only a temporary wooden structure was burned. Lack of elevators in the unfinished building prevented quick access to the blaze. But fire department leaders and other city officials suggested that it might be necessary to limit the height of buildings.

It is estimated fifty thousand spectators in Central Park and nearby watched the scaffolding send sparks and giant embers flying over roofs in eight square blocks. The blaze resembled a giant Roman candle in the skies. A water pipe burst on the 18th floor. Firemen climbed 38 flights of stairs with hose, but no water reached the flames.

Water Tower Useless.

A 65-foot water tower, the highest in New York, was useless in trying to reach the blaze, and hose carried up through the Savoy Plaza Hotel under construction across 59th street from the Sherry-Netherland, only sent a stream half way across the street.

Failing to reach the blaze 550 feet above the ground, firemen turned their efforts to save homes and private homes in the area, considered one of the most fashionable in New York. Employees of the Hotel Plaza, the Metropolitan Club, the Riding Club and other buildings for a half mile around were organized into bucket brigades and sent to the roofs to drench them against sparks.

The roof of the home of the late Elbridge T. Gerry, three blocks away, was slightly damaged by flying timbers and sparks. Alarmed residents and guests in apartment houses and hotels in the district were preparing to move when the blaze burned itself out.

700 Policemen Protect Crowd.

Seven hundred policemen were called out to protect the crowd from falling timbers and planks, tumbling like huge torches into the streets. The crash of falling lumber could be heard for blocks.

For half an hour an American flag fluttered proudly from the brilliant illuminated pinnacle of the building, but it disappeared as a gust of wind brought the flames scaling up the center of the tower.

The fire was visible to hundreds of thousands throughout the city, along the New Jersey shore and on Long Island. Two aviators in an attempt to establish a new world's duration flight record soared over the building during the fire. So brilliant was the blaze that the plane could be seen 2,000 feet above the street.

Two complete ranges are combined in this new model—only a yard wide.

THE modern kitchen is planned to save steps, and this newest model of the Gold Medal Glenwood has been made to fit it—to give you all the conveniences of both gas and coal without the disadvantages of having two ranges to take up space.

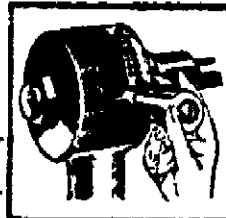

One half is a completely equipped coal range, with a large square-cornered oven and two good sized covers in the cooking top. Thrifty housewives have often told us that they get enough heat by using this coal section in winter to keep two other rooms warm, besides the kitchen.

The other half has four gas burners, a broiler and a baking oven which is equipped with a Glenwood Robertshaw Oven Heat Control. This automatic regulator sets you free from hours of oven-watching. Let us show you how easily and perfectly it works.

The Gold Medal Glenwood is also made in 2 larger sizes.

Smaller Design in New Paris Prints

Idea is to Emphasize Slim Silhouette—New Millinery for Spring.

One of the least known yet most invaluable tenets of the mode is that fabrics and fashions must always be diametrically opposite in effect. Thus when the silhouette is involved and all sorts of elaboration are sanctioned by the mode, it is the function of fabrics to be sedate, simple and comparatively in the background; when the mode becomes simple and severe it is the office of materials to enliven what might otherwise be a dull background by vivid and decorative effects. Inasmuch as simplicity is certain to be the essence of the spring fashions, writes a Paris fashion correspondent in the New York Herald-Tribune, it becomes evident that the next is to be one of the seasons in which fabrics are highly significant.

The large prints of last summer will not be repeated this season because of the insistence upon slender lines. The Paris fabricants have submitted silks with smaller designs for the purpose of emphasizing the slim silhouette; indeed, as you will observe from the following details of the important Paris fabric designers, the entire trend of spring materials is to emphasize the return of the ubiquitous stream-line silhouette.

Rodier.
This designer, famed for his remarkable weaves and combinations, suggests that fancy fabrics will be utilized chiefly for the bodices of frocks, while their skirts will be of contrastingly plain materials. In his collection a number of palm patterns make their attractive appearance. The kasha family is well represented here. Muslin is introduced—a thin, sheer silk and wool mixture—and its brother, hindikasha, which is half the weight of kasha. Again there is kashatulla, a coarse basket weave for sports wear, as well as tuelikasha, which is a fabric like tussor in weave and made of silk and wool. Rodier exploits a basket weave like a miniature of kashatulla in wool and calls it toile tusselle. For suits there is a pepper-and-salt woolen called Diaillic. Embroidered gold or silver patterns are featured, principally in Modern age designs, while stripes and figures in woolen accompany plain patterns.

Blanchini Farier.
Here small floral patterns are very much in approval, and old rose is probably the most frequent color. Tiny forget-me-nots appear in foulards with a small silk woven dot included in the pattern. Some of his chiffons are prints with enormous roses in both conventional and realistic patterns. The snake-skin pattern taken from the cobra comes in silver and is gold, as well as the pattern. Dainty silhouettes proved a material with a shiny surface and "flamingo" like back—ham-laga is something like marocain and comes in two tones, plain and changeable patterns.

Chester Meyer et Cie. fabrics seem to have taken a definite step into the fanciful. Here we find lines that curve and "wiggle" surfaces that display the charm of irregularity. Meyer et Cie.

Ensemble of White Crepe and Red Crepe.

Launch a fabric called from valent, which is a silk and wool in close weave, producing a subtle effect. For possible coats there is decala, which has a clear background with speckles in bright colors. There is sedalla, which has intricate as its base, but a far more irregular line. Velours Epillete has velvet for its base, and is made in a fine basket weave. Man-bella is a fine woven that is like jersey.

Newest Paris Millinery.
There is, after all, to be change in the millinery of the coming spring. After a season of reports about the continuing dullness of such chapter, after impassioned but futile pleas by the hat connoisseurs propagandists, it appears that Paris Fashion is out the inimitable lady you might have fancied her. For there is to be a new caplet to the hats of spring, and you had better not glance so complacently at the dusty hat boxes of last year, lest you receive a disdainful glance on Easter Sunday.

And—mark this—the distinction between the new models and the millinery of yesterday is not that the modern chapoteaux are to have broad brims and beautiful trimmings. It is not that the majestic millinery of the exquisite Victorian is once again to bow gracefully in our midst. You who have listened so often and so wearily to those attempts to grande-dame the hat mode can take heart. This gleesome forecast of hats that are actually different will have nothing to do with those specious predictions.

It has to do with something much less tangible—that fourth dimension of the mode which is known as atmosphere, or effect. Of course, you remember that the genesis of the clochian epoch was a companionable and liberal period known generally as the era of youth. Flappers were the ladies of the moment, and every one of them were turned down goloshes, an open coat and a cloche. Each of these items was co-representative—each was a symbol of truculent youth, and save only the cloche, each has passed from the picture. But the cloche, if you will overlook certain minor and unimportant lapses, has reigned over a complacent millinery realm ever since its first royal acceptance. It has never been sedate, it has never been matronly; and—for this you may be thankful—it has never gone Victorian grande dame. Perky, jaunty, youthful, there have been the qualities of its chic, and they are just the qualities you must eschew—sadly if you are young, and pleasantly if you are matronly—if you want to back in the beaming approval of that architect of the mode on Easter Sunday.

Proud and Haughty Models.

For the new chapoteaux of spring are proud and haughty models. If the flowing robes of the new season are to be Grecian in their simplicity, the spring hats will be Roman in their austerity. To the glory that was Greece you may add the hauteur that was Rome. In a word, the jaunty cloche of these many springs is to be succeeded by a hat which, while conforming generally to its measurements, will substitute an undeniably regal air for the democratic atmosphere of the clochian type. It will be far more graceful than the grande dame idea—it will breathe more aristocracy than the very compensable models of earlier seasons. You might call it a happy compromise between the opposing schools of modistes—the elegantes and the moderates.

Subtle lines and distinctions—indeed the subtlest are used to achieve this distinctive change—for there is no really radical departure in either being crown or fabric from the chapoteaux of last season.

Checks Are Predicted for Spring Fashions

If you are one of those women who have always had a weakness for checks, rejoice—the spring will witness a revival of checks, and big checks, broken checks and the conventional designs that are so chic. And they appear on silks, the new light-weight wools, and on the cotton fabrics, which from all accounts will have a decided vogue this summer.

There is something about checks that always seems to suggest a tailored effect. One never can visualize them made up into anything elaborate or fancy. When chosen for the smartly simple frocks that form the basis of the modern wardrobe, there is probably nothing that gives greater satisfaction.

Hope checks, shown in some of the new silks, are very effective in the place but must be handled with considerable discretion. The smaller pattern, however, are almost universally becoming and as varied as the color schemes that there is a design for every woman.

Forest Fires in New England

Boston, April 13 (AP).—The torch of the forest fire still blazed brightly in New England today, but farmers, principal sufferers from the scourge, and thousands of volunteer fighters, look hope at the weather forecast of probable rain for tomorrow.

Throughout the six states new blazes added to the toll of blackened land laid waste by literally hundreds of separate fires. Brush and forest were dried to the tinder point and needed but a spark to start a blaze of destructive proportions.

In this state alone 200 fires in widely divergent points were reported yesterday, with conservative estimates of the amount of ravaged woodland running into the thousands of acres.

One of the most serious situations developed at Marshfield, where a spark from a steam shovel ignited a fire that challenged the best efforts of 200 volunteer fighters and brought apparatus from five surrounding towns.

Woods that, 13 other fires of varying seriousness, threatened over thousands of acres in 19 other Plymouth county cities and towns, despite valiant efforts of the volunteers.

From the three northern states, as well as Rhode Island and Connecticut, came news of burning forests that bring a pall of smoke over wide

Queer Dance of Birds

It is said that sailors visiting the island of Laysan, in the Hawaiian group, are greatly amused by the curious antics of the Laysan albatross, or booby. These birds sometimes perform, in pairs, a kind of dance or as the sailors call it, "akawak." Two albatrosses approach each other, nodding and making profound bows, cross their bills, produce snapping and croaking sounds, rise on their toes, puff out their breasts and finally part with more nodding and bowing, only to come together again and repeat the performance. Occasionally three engage at once in this singular amusement. The spectators are always impressed with the extreme "politeness" of the birds.

Dead Letters

Letters which are sent to the dead letter office in Washington are opened, and when addresses are found in them they are returned to the senders. When a check or money order is found, but still in sufficient address, the letter is returned to the post office of the origin, and inquiry is made at the bank or money order office. Parted from matter or other mail of value which can neither be delivered nor returned, for want of sufficient address, is sent by the Post office department, under undesignated matter is finally destroyed.

36 Die in Rush To Sacred River

Hardwar, United Provinces, India, April 13 (AP).—Thirty-six pilgrims were crushed to death and many injured during a rush to be the first to bathe in the holy Ganges river, as part of the Kumbha Mela, or Hindu religious bathing ceremony.

The ceremony, which has been going on since the first of March, reached its final stage last night, when vast numbers of pilgrims entered the water of the sacred river. In the rush, which occurred at the wooded barricades erected along the river, 21 women and 15 men were killed. Many others were taken to the hospitals, suffering from serious injuries.

Hardwar, previously called Gangotri, is a town of 10,000 people, situated at the spot where the river issues from the Himalayas. The Kumbha Mela is a feast of peculiar sanctity which is held every twelfth year. The pilgrims attending the ceremony have numbered as many as 50,000. In early days, riots occurred at these ceremonies, and outbreaks of cholera were attributed to them.

May Queen and Maid of Honor

The Senior class of Kingston High School held a meeting Tuesday afternoon at which time they selected the May Queen, Miss Conith Casswell, who will preside over the May Day exercises to be held by the class of 1927 at Kingston High School this year. Miss Anna Shields was the choice to act as Maid of Honor to the queen. Ralph Miller will act as Prime Minister. It is the custom of the school to have the president of the Senior Class officiate in this capacity and since Mr. Miller is the chosen leader of the class he will occupy the position of honor.

A Moscow professor says the sun spots portend the greatest war in history within two years. Judges to Select "Miss Kingston"

Mayor Edward Dempsey will head a committee of prominent city and county officials to sit as a court of judges to select "Miss Kingston" and the Queen of the Mardi Gras to be held at the state armory on Friday evening, April 22, according to announcement by the committee of Odd Fellows and Red Men in charge of Kingston's first Mardi Gras.

Serving on the court with Mayor Dempsey will be Sheriff Arthur Rice, former Alderman Henry Macchelt, Vincent Van Bramer, Miss Helen and another prominent city official yet to be selected. "Miss Kingston" will receive a beautiful silver loving cup from the hands of Mayor Dempsey which has been donated by Oppenheimer Brothers, well known Broadway jewellers. The cup will be displayed in the Oppenheimer Brothers jewelry store window at No. 578 Broadway Thursday and remain on exhibition until the evening of the grand event.

The Cinderella Ball and Mardi Gras will present many features including long hours of dancing to the strains of four orchestras and the sensational appearance of Cinderella and Prince Charming surrounded by their fairyland court, and the affair is destined to be one of the most successful ventures of its kind ever held here. Vincent Van Bramer of the Van Bramer School of Dancing has arranged the fairyland spectacle and the court and more than 150 Kingston children will be included in this pleasing and sensational opening of the Mardi Gras.

Embree Goes to Catskill.
Lila W. Embree of 143 St. James street, who for the past ten years has been connected with the orchestras of Kingston Opera House, Keeney theatre and lately with Reade's Kingston theatre as organist and pianist, has resigned to accept the position as musical director at the Community theatre at Catskill.

Graves at Legion Building Tonight

Robert L. Graves, special representative of National Commander Howard P. Savage of the American Legion, will arrive in Kingston from Indianapolis today.

Mr. Graves is head of the Paris convention committee of the Legion and will be at the Memorial building tonight to assist and answer questions concerning the pending Paris convention. This offers an excellent opportunity for those who contemplate attending the gathering in France in September to become fully acquainted with accurate information regarding the trip across and accommodations on the other side.

All legionnaires, legion auxiliary and fathers of deceased veterans are eligible to attend the convention and are requested to meet at the legion building, West O'Reilly street, at 8 o'clock, to discuss with Mr. Graves matters pertaining to this affair.

Vacation Values

Some men need their vacation in the summer, others in the winter; some need two weeks, others need more; vacations should be planned according to the requirements of the individual person.

These are some conclusions that were reached in one large manufacturing concern in which the health of the higher executives has been watched over for the last six years by a physician. Causes of absence and illness were found to be related to the duration and season of the vacation. The efficiency of the men increased gratifyingly, as did their health, under the new regime, whereby each man's vacation was prescribed by the physician.—New York World.

Trial Marriages Ancient

Divorce-as-you-please marriages may seem modern, but ancient Scotland's "handfasting," referred to in Scott's novel "The Monastery," was that kind of marriage. A man and woman agreed verbally in the presence of witnesses, to live as man and wife. At the end of the year each might choose another mate, or call the priest to marry them for life, or merely shake hands on it and say "pleased to meet you," or something like that.—Capper's Weekly.

Fish Have Nicknames

As a rule, sea fish, not river fish, have nicknames. The red mullet, for instance, is often called the sea woodcock because of its taste, and the dab is sometimes known as sailor.

Fishermen call the hake the sea pike because its shape is a little like that of the pike, and they term a flounder a fleet or fluke.

One of the guardfish has the name of cockle-guard, by reason of the odd sound it makes when caught.

Lily in the Desert

A member of the lily family is the Joshua tree, a true desert growth. Gaunt and twisted, growing usually in twos and threes, these trees seem to be neither tree nor shrub—too stunted to be the first and too grotesque to be the last. Many of them are blackened by fire. Some are rotted down and broken off. They serve as bonfires for desert wanderers, although sagebrush and greasewood are more easily gathered.

FINE OLD BRIDGES FOUND IN ORIENT

Many of Them Remarkable Engineering Feats.

Great as may be the engineering achievements in building such wonderful structures as the Quebec bridge, the Forth bridge, the great Tower bridge across the Thames, they do not eclipse in wonder some of the native-made bridges of China and India.

The bridges of the Occident were erected with the aid of every modern device known to man under the supervision of thoroughly trained engineers. The bridges of the Orient were erected by comparatively untrained men, unassisted by the wonderful appliances at the command of occidental engineers.

A real thrill may be secured by watching the working of the pontoon bridge at Howrah, says an article which appeared in the Times of India, or by being rattled over the seemingly interminable Sone bridge. It is to an older civilization, however, that one must turn for splendid examples of bridge construction.

The province of Szechuan, in western China, is interlaced with water-courses, which required bridging, and apparently necessity stimulated the inhabitants, at a very early period, to anticipate some of the best conceptions of modern engineering. The bridges in Szechuan mark the intermediary stages between the simple trestle thrown down across a stream and the present elaborate structures of steel and stone. Moreover, in bridge building the Chinese discovered yet another way of accumulating merit, for the builder of a bridge in China lays up treasure for himself in heaven in much the same fashion as does the man who erects a shrine, endows a hospital or buries the poor.

The most common type of bridge in Szechuan is the "arcade bridge," which resembles in some respects the Bialto bridge over the Grand canal, Venice. It consists of a single arch built of stone and topped with a tiled-roof structure of wood, the interior of which is often decorated with paintings and carvings and flanked with sweet-smelling stalls at which weary travelers regale themselves.

Another fairly common type of bridge is the iron-chain suspension bridge. One of these spans the Mekong river, which, owing to its strong current, is unnavigable. The bridge has an elevation of 3,500 feet, and is about 80 yards long. It consists of a number of stout chains secured at both ends to massive piers of stone, on which are built picturesque chalet-like structures.

Across the chains planks are laid, forming a roadway, which is wide enough for laden mules to pass over. As might be imagined, these bridges sway a lot. During a storm crossing becomes difficult, and sometimes impossible, for every bridge is not safely rattled off.

Another example is that of a bridge over the Pakhoi Eka, which marks the boundary between Burma and China. It spans an impetuous torrent, which is clogged with boulders and unfordable during certain periods of the year. The bridge is 20 yards long, very narrow and very rickety. It is built entirely of bamboo, and in its general appearance bears a marked resemblance to the ordinary cantilever bridge of modern times.

Air Line Across Sahara

It will soon be a matter of 48 hours—by air—from Algiers to the River Niger.

An airline across the Sahara linking Algeria with the big, valuable possessions of France in black Africa, which the French government has been studying seriously, will be a reality, possibly this year. Announcement of the project was made before the French parliament by the minister of war and the director of the air service after an Algerian deputy stressed the need of a trans-Saharan aerial service.

An appropriation of some million francs (a franc—123 cents) is being set aside.

Turning Point

Chicago's Assistant State's Attorney O'Brien, recently shot by gangsters, was brought up on the streets. But while selling newspapers he read and studied and became a lawyer.

Once when trying a case in which an educated man, member of a wealthy family and a "talk stocker" was on the other side, the "talk stocker" was referred to O'Brien in a heated argument as a former boot-black. O'Brien rose from his chair, bowed to the court, and, putting his finger at the silk-stocking gentleman, said, "Sir, if you had ever been a boot-black you would be one yet." That remark helped to make O'Brien a Chicago lawyer.

Consentance of Work

The consentance fund of the government was opened with a contribution of $5 in 1911. The amounts sent in range from 2 cents, a person who failed to put a stamp on a letter when mailed, to several thousand dollars from persons who donated goods into the United States without paying import duty. Usually the amounts are small, however. The largest single deposit was $99,000. As of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, $4,351,011 was contributed. The total in the fund as of December 31, 1926, was $9,100,000.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

IN THE MOVIES

Douglas and Dorothy were walking one day when something very strange and very exciting happened.

At first Douglas and Dorothy could not make out what it was.

"That man standing upon the high box is shrieking at every one," said Dorothy. "I think he is very cross."

"But the people don't seem to mind what he says except they move about as he tells them to," said Douglas. "They don't look as if they thought he was angry."

And then they noticed that the man standing upon the high box was talking to them. He had a large black something before him, and he was turning around a little handle all the time.

"No, children," he was saying, "run as if you were afraid."

"But we're not afraid," said Douglas, putting his hands in his pockets. "We love adventures and we're not afraid of anything. We've had too good a time to be 'fraid-cats'."

At that every one laughed and the man on the high box laughed too.

"We don't want you to be frightened," continued the man, "but you must run! That's part of the picture."

"What picture?" the children asked.

"The picture for the movies," said the man. "You can see yourselves on the screen later on! Now run! And when you have gone far enough I will call to you to come back."

Off started Douglas and Dorothy running for all they were worth, and later the man told them to see themselves on a certain day in a certain theater.

When that day came along Douglas and Dorothy, you may be sure, were at the theater before the doors were opened. Later Uncle John came too.

"We've come to see ourselves," they told the man at the door when at last it opened.

"You have, have you?" asked the man. "Well, I'd just like to tell you we're having Charlie Chaplin today on the screen. We don't need anything else."

Douglas and Dorothy didn't pay any attention. They were too excited.

"We're Not Afraid," said Douglas.

and when Uncle John arrived it was plain to be seen that he, too, was quite excited at the thought of seeing the children in the movies.

Charlie Chaplin was there, to be sure—making every one laugh, but later on there was a street scene of a great robbery, and of two children who were suspected as being the children of the famous robbers running away. It was a most exciting story.

And there Douglas and Dorothy saw themselves. How thrilling it was!

A wonderful story, and made up for just them it surely seemed.

There they were running—actually running—while some music played faster, faster to keep up with them.

"We've been in a wonder story," said Douglas.

"We've been in the movies," said Dorothy, feeling more important than any king or queen could possibly feel.

Markings of a Tomboy

Billy Lee was greatly embarrassed at times because his sister was such a tomboy.

After they told him the new baby was a girl, I found the little fellow sitting on the back steps, his chin in his hands. I asked him why he was so unhappy looking.

"I suppose she'll be a tomboy, too," he complained. "Just look at the way her feet are doubled up."

Needed Watching

On a recent automobile trip there were four grown-ups and one child. For hours we had followed the well marked Route 17. I looked at Betty who was watching intently, but never these looked weary.

"Betty," said I, "you had better take a nap."

"I'd like to," answered Betty, "but I'd be afraid you'd lose it."

Sister Bertha

A little girl went home from Sunday school (kindergarten department) last Sunday and was asked what she had learned in Sunday school.

She proudly answered that she had learned about Christ's sister.

"But Christ had no sister," was the reply.

"Oh, yes, he did, for the teacher said her name was Bertha Christ."

NEW PALTZ

New Paltz, April 13.—Daniel Lawrence is to give or loan the village a parking place. It is to be fitted up in quite an attractive shape as the village could possibly do it. Mr. Lawrence's residence on North Chestnut street is to be moved back 250 feet and the place where the house now stands and the grounds will become the much needed parking place. The lot is the largest property in the central part of the village, the portion which is to be used for parking purposes being 125 by 200 feet. A filling station will be erected on the property and Mr. Lawrence modestly states that his is primarily a business move. The work will be started this week. A Newburgh firm has the contract for moving the residence but the rest of the work will be done by New Paltz mechanics. The building will be very attractive, of stucco and brick, with a red shingle roof. There will also be a ladies' waiting room furnished with comfortable wicker chairs. The parking place will greatly relieve the congestion on Main and Chestnut streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Terwilliger called on Miss Emma Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Terwilliger at Modena on Sunday.

Mrs. H. Daigle and several friends gave Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Terwilliger a party at their new home recently to celebrate the opening up of the new home as the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Terwilliger. Gifts were presented to the couple which they received gratefully and extended many thanks to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright and the Misses Lulu and Mildred Wright spent last Sunday in Kingston.

Mrs. Frederic Bradley, who is ill in Hartford, is improving and expects to return to her home in town soon after Easter. Mr. Bradley will go to Hartford to accompany her home.

Henry DuBois of Ohioville and some boy friends from New Paltz motored to Tannersville Sunday to see Harry DuBois.

Mrs. Fred Devo was hostess on Monday to the bridge club.

Abram J. DuBois of Walden was in town last Saturday and visited Miss Anna DuBois.

Miss Ethel Silkworth left last Sunday for Ray Shore, Long Island, where she will teach ten weeks.

Mrs. Burr Pratt of Brodhead avenue is moving into the Silas Van Wageningen house on Huguenot street.

Wilbert Alsdorf, who teaches at Cross River, spent the week end at his home in town.

Mrs. Edmund Eltinge entertained friends at luncheon at the T. Shop recently. Cards were enjoyed after the luncheon.

News has reached New Paltz of the death of Thomas Sanborn, husband of Ruth Smiley Sanborn who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smiley of Mohawk Lake. Mr. Sanborn died April 6 at his home Canon Creek Park, Redlands, California, after a prolonged illness.

The village board held its official meeting of the new village year Monday evening, April 4, in the trustees' rooms. The following appointments for the ensuing year were made: Treasurer, Eugene Van Wageningen; collector, Mrs. Ida Little; superintendent of water, William Blocker; janitor, William McKelvie; constable, Lanson Decker; clerk, Otto B. Schmidt; James Turner is to work on the village streets. Several other important things were discussed.

A regular meeting of Huguenot Grange was held last Saturday night. The entertainment was in charge of the Bachelor Brothers and consisted of an amusing monologue in Norwegian dialect, by Henry DuBois, then came a pantomime play entitled, "Wanted a Wife" which was very amusing. After the meeting refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed.

WHITFIELD.

Whitfield, April 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Rebecca Lockwood, Mrs. Allen Farrell and little son of Stone Ridge spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Van Vleet.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Hornebeck and daughter Bertha, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gossie of Schoharie spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hornebeck and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Edwards were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kelder Saturday evening.

Miss Kathya Brown of Lefferts had a week-end guest of Miss Beulah Hornebeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Scholer and daughters of Catskill were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Hornebeck Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Davis have returned to their home in Lefferts.

A cheerful smile is an invitation to all hearts.

Orchards in Sod Need Fertilizer

Nitrate of Soda or Sulphate of Ammonia Are Usually Used—Those Cultivated Seldom Need Feeding.

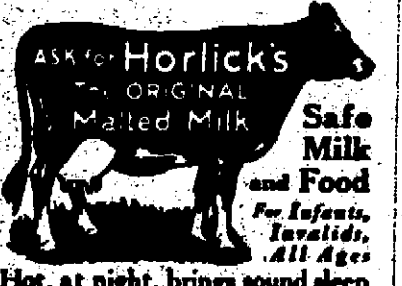

Apple orchards that are in sod may need fertilizer this spring, according to Professor Joseph Oskamp at the state college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y. For such orchards, he recommends a readily available nitrogenous fertilizer such as nitrate of soda or sulphate of ammonia.

This should be applied about two weeks before the trees bloom or when the buds show green at a time which coincides very closely with the period when the delayed dormant spray is applied.

It is not necessary that the fertilizer be worked into the soil; it may be scattered broadcast between the rows. The amount to apply will vary with the age of the trees and other conditions. For trees 10 to 12 years old, three pounds should be applied for each tree; trees 13 to 20 years old, five to six pounds; and for old, large trees in sod, 12 pounds each is suggested.

Barnyard manure is rich in nitrogen and will give good results if applied at the rate of 10 to 12 tons to an acre. It is not necessary to use other nitrates with the manure, Professor Oskamp says.

Orchards in reasonably good soil, that are cultivated, and in which cover crops are grown, do not usually need fertilizer. Nitrates seem to give best results on poor land and on sod orchards. On unusually sandy soil, acid phosphate and muriate of potash may be needed also, although it is seldom profitable to use them.

Hot, at night, brings sound sleep

EARN STUDY COURSE TEACHES GARDENING

In the spring, fancies may lightly turn to thoughts of a garden, but for many the original enthusiasm may be greater than the knowledge of gardening.

It is for the uninitiated as well as for the more experienced gardener that the state college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y., tells of its offer of a correspondence course in home gardening.

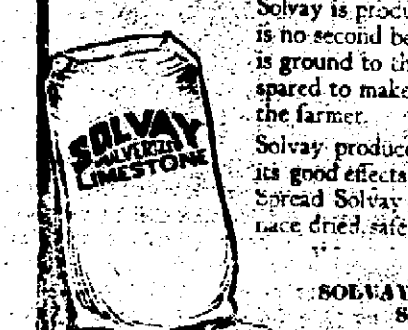

This course, which is free to residents of New York state includes preparing the soil, fertilizing, seeding, combating insects and diseases, and harvesting and storing vegetables. Not only does it tell how to grow vegetables, but it also includes directions for preparing vegetables for the table and a study of the food value of different varieties of vegetables and of how to make them palatable and attractive.

It is well-known that green food plays an important part in keeping bodies strong by furnishing minerals and vitamins. The home gardening course tells which vegetables are important sources of the various minerals and vitamins and tells the proper amount of various green foods required.

Those interested may obtain further information about this or any of the other twenty-five correspondence courses offered free to residents of New York state by addressing a post card to the Cornell farm study course at the state college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

Preparations for Benedictine Ball

Interest, entertainment and comfort, three words that mean much at any social gathering, form the slogan of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Benedictine Hospital in the preparations for the Easter Monday ball.

The most pretentious entertainment program ever attempted by the auxiliary has been planned. Three of the finest and most artistic acts listed in the booking houses in New York are expected to give unlimited pleasure. Prof. Oscar J. Hallenbeck, Jr., and Miss Carolyn Buchanan of Albany will prove to be a rare treat in their graceful and intricate dancing. Harry Lazarus, well-known theatre man of Kingston, is always a great drawing number. People never tire of his splendid baritone voice. Vincent Van Bramer and Miss Helen Cashin, dancing instructors of Kingston, will almost take folks' breath away with their whirlwind dancing. Miss Frances Finn, favorite always, will add new laurels to her crown. And the diminutive performers, Jeanne and Marie Ward, will be enthusiastically applauded in their number.

When engaging the music for the Benedictine Ball, the auxiliary demanded the best in modern ballroom dance music. The auxiliary feels the best is being given to the people of Kingston when Paul Zucca and his orchestra and Jack Erbe and his broadcasting orchestra alternate in dance selections. Out of town orchestras probably have more press notices to publish, possibly have greater drawing ability; but, for uniformly good dance music, dance after dance all evening long, our own local orchestras have proved their superiority. It is with pleasure, therefore, that the above named orchestras are announced by the auxiliary as in charge of music for the Easter Monday ball.

The publicity committee, ably headed by Mrs. H. L. Van Norstrand, has carried out its work in a most systematic manner. Kingston and surrounding towns are well posted with announcements of the ball, and many prominent store windows are carrying elaborate Easter displays built around most attractive hand made Benedictine Ball posters. Many complimentary comments concerning these posters and displays are heard on all sides.

Mrs. Frank L. Meagher very capably heads the decorating committee. Under her skillful direction the big drill shed of the armory will be transformed into a gorgeous ballroom, bringing out the most artistic in its architectural possibilities. In addition to the main scheme of decoration, attractively decorated flower refreshment and lemonade booths will add color and brilliancy to the whole.

The most uninteresting part of the story on Easter Monday night will be the ladies' check room, and the ladies who volunteer for this service deserve a special word of commendation and thanks. Mrs. Sarah Finn heads this committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Francis Brennan, Mrs. William Erle, Mrs. Patrick J. Lloyd, Mrs. John P. Norton and the Misses Mary Burns, Loretta Burns, Helen Lloyd and Mary McNamara.

The floor committee will be in charge of Charles J. Mullen, who, with his assistants, will see to it that each and every guest at the ball is comfortably seated so that an unobstructed view of the entertainers may be obtained.

While the patron list is about ready for publication, there is yet time for anyone who desires to become a patron to do so by telephoning Miss Mary E. McGill, 1544-W. Single tickets may be purchased from S. Cohen's Sons, Von Berg's Restaurant, William O'Reilly of 530 Broadway, Richard Meyer, the jeweler, at the corner of Fair and John streets, and from Andrew J. Murphy, 12 East Strand.

Raw Wheat as Cure-All Is New Craze in Paris

Paris.—Raw wheat as a cure for all ills is the latest craze of intellectual Parisians.

Andre Lapin, a writer on dietetics, started it in a series of articles in Comedia, the theatrical and artistic daily newspaper, extolling the beneficial effects of munching a teaspoonful of germinating wheat before lunch every day.

Wheat, he declares, contains in an unusual degree the vitamins lacking in other articles of food, particularly the nerve-stimulating B variety. Many well-known persons followed his advice and profess to have obtained immense benefit.

And now fashionable doctors are prescribing it for their patients, and the principal restaurants are arranging to serve the magic teaspoonful as a hors d'oeuvre.

Tip for Girls

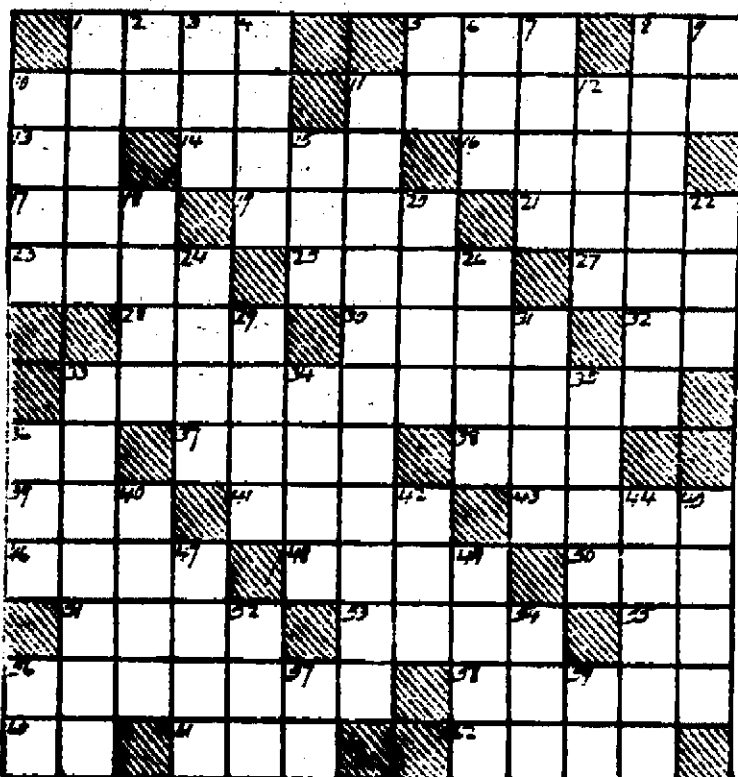

New York.—If you wish to marry, girls, the chances are better in the country. Ten per cent more women between the ages of twenty and forty-four living in rural districts marry than those living in cities. The principal reason is high rent.

Hot Water Bring A Spring Freshness

Curtains, winter blankets and clothing, and every furthest corner of the whole house receive their share of attention at this season of the year, and are "spruced up" for spring.

Nothing can be more helpful in doing things the right way, and obtaining a real spring freshness, than a plentiful supply of steaming hot water.

Whenever you need it—for whatever you need it—you will always find it ready when you use a gas tank water heater.

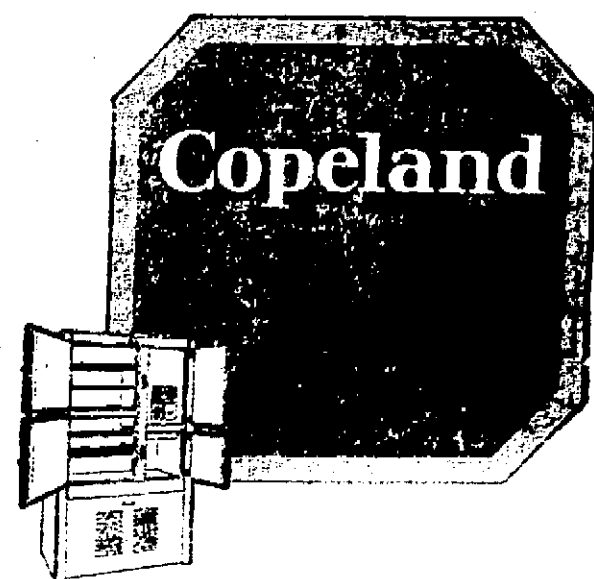

Inexpensive and economical are these tank water heaters of gray enamel or black finish, which can be purchased on convenient terms for a first payment of $1 and less than $2 a month. Expert installation is furnished.

BURIED 24 ALIVE; STOPS RELIGIOUS RITE REPETITION

Member of Fanatic Russian
Sect Helps Soviet Census
Takers With Devotees.

Uzbekistan, Russia.—A religious fanatic who buried twenty-four people alive at their own request when czar Nicholas II conducted the last national census in 1907 worked energetically with the soviet authorities in the census last completed to prevent a repetition of his horrible act of forty years ago.

The fanatic was one of a religious colony located here called the Starobridze. There were twenty-five members of the sect when the czar's census takers came. The Starobridze in a panic, thought the officials were the heralds of the anti-christ and elected to die rather than submit to the census. According to their wild creed they chose to be buried alive. But they found that they could not bury themselves.

Buries 24 Alive
They drew lots to determine which of them should bury the rest and himself remain alive to risk the anti-christ danger. The choice fell on a young zealot with a wife and two children. In spite of his protests the others assured him that he would win such heavenly favor by saving his coreligionists that he himself would be saved though still alive.

Chanting weird songs intoning prayers and carrying lighted candles the twenty-four fanatics descended into a cellar where the protesting twenty-fifth built a solid wall around them, cemented it and heaped it with earth.

Built a Solid Wall Around Them.

The sound of their singing continued in the vault for some time while the sole remaining fanatic listened and prayed. In the tomb were his own wife and two children.

News of the horror spread and the man who had buried the others was arrested and sentenced to spend his life in the Greek Orthodox monastery at Suzdal. The sect however, was revived and the soviet officials recalled him from the monastic exile to help prevent a repetition of the incident when the census takers came last month. In this he was successful and the devotees submitted to the census readily.

Boy Just Grins as He Faces More Operations

Kansas City, Mo.—The outlook of more operations more days in a hospital and more suffering through which Norman Standefor thirteen years old must pass before he will be able to go to college does not break the intrepid spirit of the boy who now lies at Bethany hospital with a tube in his brain.

Physicians declare that before he can be pronounced cured an operation must be performed taking a part of a rib from his body and grafting it in the hole in his skull. Several other operations may be necessary to remove a growth on his brain that developed from the injury received March 23, 1926 when he was struck by a ten pound shot.

Asked if he feared more operations, Norman grinned again.
"Say, I ain't afraid. When they come in here to dress my wound the nurses try to keep me from looking at it in the mirror of the dresser. But I look anyhow and it does not scare me a bit. If you come around here about noon tomorrow—no, day after tomorrow, you can see for yourself. They will dress the wound then."

Freight Train Runs Into Track Load of Dynamite

Tulsa.—A freight train running near Tulsa recently smashed into a truck trying to beat the train at a crossing, the truck being loaded with twenty tons of dynamite. The explosion threw the locomotive and thirteen cars from the track, scattered bits of the truck driver and his assistant over the landscape, seriously wounded the engine driver and his assistant, and broke all the glass in twenty nearby houses.

Jilted Girl Refuses to Wed Suitor, Jailed

Philadelphia.—Arrested on a warrant charging breach of promise, Bernard Labouge, a widower, thought a new proposal of marriage to Miss Antoinette Pimpouelle, an orphan, would satisfy the girl. But it didn't.

"I am willing to marry her," said Labouge when arraigned before Magistrate Frank J. Clark at Norristown. "I want to provide a home for her."

Miss Pimpouelle, a former telephone operator, testified Labouge cast her off after taking her to his home.

"I won't marry him," she said. "He was ugly to me and I'm afraid of him. After he forced me to leave his home I wouldn't trust him."

LETS ROPE MANGLE HAND TO SAVE MAN

Inexperienced Climber Proves Himself Hero.

Cape Town, South Africa.—Mountaineers here are lavish in their praise of a magnificent act of courage performed by an inexperienced climber, John Bing, while attempting to establish a new route up the face of Table Mountain, in company with Frank Cooke of Cape Town.

The two men were linked together by a rope. After they had ascended 1000 feet Cooke, an experienced mountaineer, fell but was saved from certain death by the bravery and resource of his companion, who had no previous experience in climbing.

Bing seized the rope by which he was linked to his friend and slipped it over a rock. He then placed his hand between the rope and the rock so that it should act as a buffer and prevent the rope from fraying and snapping.

His hand was crushed and cut but hour after hour he braved the pain and kept the rope in position. Cooke, who was suspended over a gorge hundreds of feet deep, was helped as his thigh had been broken by striking the cliff face.

By waving his handkerchief Bing drew the attention of a party of mountaineers who went to the rescue. Reaching Bing, who was on the point of collapse, they relieved him of the rope and set about the business of recovering Cooke.

Two rescuers descended to him with food and restoratives. They blindfolded him to save him the mental torture of being suspended in midair. Twenty-four hours later he was hailed more dead than alive to the cliff's summit.

Prefers Jail and Love to Freedom All Alone

Los Angeles, Calif.—A prison term rather than promise that she would cease associating with the man who is asserted to have contributed to her downfall was the decision of Miss Florence K. Patton, thirty-four years of age, until recently a trusted escrow clerk in a downtown bank and a worker in church circles.

Miss Patton had admitted two counts of an embezzlement charge involving $3,150. Her shortages at the bank are said to have covered a period of several months and she is asserted to have used the money and her influence to further the financial ends of her suitor.

But when she was asked if she would give her sweetheart up if she was granted her liberty, probation officers told Judge Elliot Craig, she refused to answer the question.

So Judge Craig sentenced her "for the period prescribed by law," or one to ten years on one of the embezzlement counts and put her on probation for seven years on the other count.

You can have your private yacht

GIVE me a pipe and Prince Albert, and you can have your cabin-cruiser and your winter vacation. I won't envy you for a minute. In fact, I wouldn't trade places with anybody. I could even be happy on a desert island with a pipe and plenty of P.A.

You'll understand my enthusiasm for this prince of smokers the minute you open the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco. But that's only a starter. The taste more than lives up to the promise of the aroma. Tuck a load in your jimmypipe, light up, and see.

Cool, as a breeze from the forward deck is cool. Sweet, with a sweetness that doesn't tire. Mild as milk, yet with plenty of body to let you know you're smoking. P. A. is neither too heavy nor too light, which makes it the middle-weight champ, so far as I'm concerned.

Telling you about Prince Albert is one thing. Trying it in your pipe is another. You'll never know exactly what it is that holds millions of happy jimmypipers to this one brand until you make the personal test. When you do, you'll say I did you a favor in tipping you off.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, packed and half-packed in tins, and packed in bulk in large tins. And always with every bit of him and pipe recommended by the Prince Albert process.

Not as Loving as This Now

Rumors of strained relations between Aimee McPherson, famed Los Angeles evangelist, and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, with whom she is shown in a loving pose, were spread by Mrs. McPherson's action in moving out of the palatial home she occupied next to her Angelus Temple. Mrs. Kennedy remains in the house, while the evangelist is living with her children at a beach resort. Mrs. McPherson announced plans to "take religion to the wicked East."

Why Do Stark Bros. Spray This $5000 Tree With SCALECIDE Every Year?

Stark Brothers paid the record price of $5000.00 for this original golden delicious tree. They cannot afford to take any risk with it so they enclose it in a burglar alarm cage and spray it every year with Scalecide—the complete dormant spray.

SCALECIDE
—THE COMPLETE DORMANT SPRAY—

Controls scale (fall or spring), controls aphids and pear thrips without scudding (delayed dormant), controls leaf rollers and European red saw (delayed dormant), controls of which is controlled by late-spraying with nicotine-sulfate pear thrips (fall or early spring), controls leaf-miner (fall or spring). In addition to all these diseases the annual use of Scalecide controls fire-blight and fungus-chalk and invigorates the tree. Scalecide is guaranteed to check a hostile outbreak from tomorrow.

AMERICAN VETERAN GETS CALL FROM FRENCH ARMY

Offers Commission to Wisconsin State, Who, Wounded in Its Service, Last Memory Three Years.

Madison, Wis.—The French army, with whom he fought in the World War, receiving a wound which made three years pass as a night, has again beckoned H. L. Rice, erstwhile student at the University of Wisconsin. Rice, who is thirty-one, and was born in Pennsylvania, has been offered a commission as major in the French army, he said, and he plans to accept it.

Rice said he enlisted in France in 1912 and became a Lieutenant in the heavy cavalry. With the opening of the World War his outfit was sent to help stop the Germans. German artillery took a heavy toll, and the 200 survivors were further demoralized when they engaged a regiment of Uhlans. Rice was wounded. The French finally fought their way through. Then at dusk, Rice heard a shell explode.

"I didn't feel a thing," he said. "When I woke up I was home in South Dakota. Three years had elapsed as though I had been asleep overnight."

The soldier had been in a French hospital for a year and was brought home by a French soldier. Two medals, the Belgian Order of Leopold and the French Legion of Honor, had been awarded to him.

"I didn't do anything to get them—just got shot up and happened to be the only survivor of the outfit that I know of," he remarked.

Rice's memory was restored in 1917 and he has attended the University of Wisconsin intermittently since then. A silver plate has taken the place of that part of his skull torn away by the German shell.

Find Prehistoric Sea Bottom in Michigan

Houghton, Mich.—A sea beach formed 1,000,000,000 years ago, one of the oldest in the world, is located in the upper peninsula, according to Prof. W. A. Seaman of the department of geology of Michigan college of mining and technology here. He says traces are still preserved in the hard-rocked. This old sea beach is on a low, rocky point near the Marquette branch state prison.

Professor Seaman explains that the ancient sea deposited considerable sand, salt and iron compounds as it advanced over the land. This iron formation stretched over northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota and to the Arctic ocean on each side of Hudson bay. The iron ore produced in the Lake Superior region is from this formation.

Professor Seaman also declares that near Champion there was at one time one of the largest and most active volcanoes in the world. It may be seen from the highway as a low hill on the east of Lake Michigan.

The hills south of Marquette are almost entirely composed of ancient sea bottoms, according to Professor Seaman.

Find Civil War Pass Signed by "A. Lincoln"

Rochester, N. Y.—A Civil war pass, signed by President Lincoln and permitting the late Gen. Roger A. Pryor of the Confederate army to pass through the Union lines to General Grant for a conference regarding exchange of prisoners, has just been found here.

It is in possession of W. H. Tisdale, eighty-four years old, who from 1861 to 1864 was an orderly for President Lincoln and later court attendant for General Pryor when he became a federal justice. General Pryor sought the note for years, Mr. Tisdale said, but it was found only recently when a Union veteran named Dubar, who had come into possession of it during the war, sent it to Mr. Tisdale with the request that it be forwarded to Justice Pryor's heirs.

The pass, written on a card, reads: "Allow the bearer, Roger A. Pryor, to pass to General Grant and report to him for exchange."

"A. LINCOLN."

Phenomenon in Sky

On a cloudy morning recently, when dust filled the air, McPherson, Knickerbocker, witnessed an extraordinary phenomenon. A peculiar deep pink hue suddenly appeared in the heavens and was reflected on buildings and the ground, like the glow of a strong fire. Through the glow electric lights turned to a greenish color. The phenomenon lasted less than five minutes.

Prof. E. H. Nisonger and Dr. H. J. Hardy of the biology department of McPherson college expressed the opinion that an especially brilliant sunrise breaking through low, thin clouds was reflected on the fine frost in the air, causing the pink tint. But they could not account for the greenish tint of the electric lights.—New York Herald.

King Has Faith in King

"Cocky" Robert King, so-called at Stanford University because of his confidence in his own ability as a jumper, cleared 6 feet 6 1/4 inches in early workouts this season. His faith in himself brought him the I. C. A. A. A. championship and record last year.

Prima Egg Contest.

The Prima Society is conducting a contest to determine the most artistic egg decorator in Kingston High School and many of the students of the institution have signified their intention of manifesting their ability in the art. The contest is open to all members of the school, who enter their handiwork under a fictitious name. The contest will close on Thursday, April 14.

Judges will decide the winners. The egg will be distributed to children in the orphanage in this vicinity.

THIS WEEK'S SERVICES AT COMFORTER CHURCH

This evening at 8 o'clock the monthly business meeting and social of the Adult Bible class of the Church of the Comforter will be held in the church hall. It is hoped that all the members will be present.

Service Thursday evening in the church at 7:30. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The question has been asked whether Christians who are not members of the church would be permitted to take communion. The pastor invites any Christians to join in this communion service.

Franchising service on Good Friday night at 7:30. The Rev. Lucie Hoover, D. D., pastor of the First Dutch Church, will preach the sermon. The public is also invited to attend this service.

Spring Carnival Visited by King.

A large audience attended Rude's Kingston Theatre Tuesday night to view the offerings on the program of the Spring Carnival. "Fanciest of the Youth," one of Paramount's latest productions, is the cinema attraction. In conjunction with the picture which will be shown for the first time tonight, there are six Keith-Albee vaudeville acts. They consist of Joe & Frank Ross in a dancing act; William Smith, in a comedy sketch; Oliver & Orange, two Victor recording artists, in "Variety First"; Salvatore Scola, who is an artist with a banjo; Carline Emmy, in an artistic comedy offering "Red Wings."

Tommy—Do that grow very fast? Terry—I should say. Father caught one and it grows on bushes every time he catches it.

THEN and NOW

Donie Bush, new manager of the Pittsburgh team, started his big league baseball career with the Detroit team. These pictures show him as he looked in the good old days and as he looks today. Getting handsome, isn't he?

THEN and NOW

Bill Carrigan is shown on the left as he looked when he started out in life as a catcher for the Red Sox. Now he is returning to his first love, not as a sounding board for wild pitchers, but as manager.

Tagging Major League Bases

New York, April 13 (AP).—Salvos of base hits resounded yesterday in the ball parks of seven cities where the opening games of the big league season were played, and victory went to the team with the heaviest barrage.

Six home runs marked the opening day and those were divided between two teams. The Gluts gathered three in pounding out a 15 to 7 victory over the Phillies at Philadelphia. Rogers Hornsby, late of the Cards, hit one of them and George Harper and Bill Terry contributed the others.

The World Champion Cardinals lost to the Chicago Cubs when the home team unlimbered a few over-the-hillers in the hitting of Webb and Grimm. Webb came through with two home runs and Grimm with another. The score was 10 to 1.

Babe Ruth was left behind in the heavy hitting parade. He could not get his eye on the ball as the Yankees met and defeated the Athletics at Yankee Stadium. The Babe struck out twice and was benched in the sixth for a pinch hitter.

In the same game Ty Cobb appeared and showed the fans some of the base running that made him one of the outstanding figures in the National game for years. He beat out a bunt, got to third by a hair with a good slide, and later scored. The Yankees beat the McGillicuddy team of old time talent by 8 to 3 before a record opening crowd of 72,000.

It was a bad day for pitchers, but a few of them stood out, most of them veterans. Old Jess Petty pitched sterling ball for the Robins, back and says, "After you get the grass at Boston where the Brooklynites beat the Braves 6 to 2. He held them says, 'and churn the milk.'"

International Opens Today

New York, April 13 (AP).—With every club reorganized and bolstered by up-and-coming youngsters or former stars of the major leagues, the International circuit opens its season today with games at Jersey City, Reading and Newark.

Hainie Groh and Rabbit Maraville will be seen in the Rochester infield as the Tribe meets the Newark Bears of Newark. The Skeeters will entertain the Toronto Leafs, last year's champions, while Buffalo's Bisons play at Reading. Baltimore's Orioles open tomorrow at home against the Syracuse Stars.

Playing shortstop for Baltimore is the place of Joe Boley, who moved up to the Athletics this season, will be Everett Scott, holder of the famous record of more than a thousand consecutive games in the major leagues.

Communion Table Profaned

Shaking of dice on the communion table for Bibles, a custom started 200 years ago in a church at St. Ives, England, has been altered so that the casting will take place on a table placed on the chancel steps. The unusual procedure was started by provisions of the will of Dr. Robert Wild, who bequeathed $250, the yearly income from which was to be expended on Bibles to be cast for by dice on the communion table by six boys and six girls.

Cooper, West York, Ill., defeated Ray Potter, Marietta, Ohio, 10 rounds. Jack Boyd, Nova Scotia, stopped Joe Johnson, Tampa, 1 rounds.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

San Francisco—Visitors from other sun-kissed lands are great promoters for California. Ibanes raved over Los Angeles and now Placido is glad the disabling of his plane enabled him to come to the golden gate, and "I must come back. Your girls are very, very pretty."

New York—There are so many germs in New York's congested subway that experts are nabbing a few with bottles in an effort to estimate the number.

San Juan—When the Pan American goodwill flyers get home first thing they will want is a beef steak smothered with onions or something such. But no rice, beans or fish. They are quite fed up on those foods.

New York—If the bar loses the stage will gain perhaps. Two well known lawyers are trying to be dramatists. Lloyd C. Grissom, once ambassador to Italy and one of Pershing's staff officers in France, is collaborating in a melodrama of the underworld. "Wall Street," a play by James N. Rosenberg, specialist in corporate finance, is to be produced shortly.

Washington—In order to be able to argue before the Supreme court at 83 take plenty of exercise in youth and then much fresh air with a holiday Saturday afternoon. That's the recipe of Moses Hooper of Oshkosh, Wis., who drove his car from home. Pleading a water power case he pounded his desk and was questioned at length by Justice Holmes, 87.

Newark, N. J.—Henry Ford, artist. He is so described in a pamphlet by John Cotton Dana, director of the Newark museum. Referring to Ford and others the pamphlet says that "often the constructive talent of an advertisement of affairs shows itself in later years in a deep and full appreciation of the arts."

New York—One number of current history, published by the New York Times, has been excluded from Russia. It contained an article by Kerensky saying Soviet Russia was facing its greatest crisis. Mailed to a subscriber in Odessa it was returned with the address cut off and attached to the envelope by a pin.

New York—Unbounded possibilities of trouble lie in wait for him who interferes with feminine affairs. In the words of Justice Ford of the Supreme court. So far be it from him to decide which of two theatres was entitled to the service of Senorita Margarita Cueto, singer. Each claimed she had signed a contract.

MUNT'S CIRCUS LOSES ITS GENTLE HYENA

Recently John Hunt, formerly of this city, paid a visit to Kingston and at that time informed Kingston friends that the Hunt Circus would visit Kingston soon. However when the Hunt Motor Circus arrives the people of Kingston will not have the pleasure of seeing the circus hyena, for that animal is deceased. John Hunt and his son, Charles T. Hunt, whose fame as circus men is widespread, are mourning the loss of the hyena which escaped from their menagerie at Baltimore and was shot by policemen.

Two frightened milkmen dashed into the Pikesville police station at Baltimore, Md., Tuesday, with word that a strange wild animal had "tried to hold them up" on Reisterstown road. Two patrolmen fared forth and shot the animal. It was a hyena.

"Why did they shoot it?" mourned Charles H. Hunt, from whose menagerie the animal had escaped Monday night. "All they had to do was to take it by the ears. It was very gentle. All it eats is milk."

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Afternoon reception of the first baseball game of the season Tuesday afternoon was clear from all of the Big Three stations and especially good from WGY. Evening reception was as good from these stations but very weak on DX. It was not until 10 o'clock that Chicago, KDKA, WOC, WIP, WSAI and WTAM began to even whisper. WLW was the only good station in the west before 10. Even the time signal from NAA was not easy to tune in, partly due to interference by WNAC. The Ever Ready program from WGY was good.

After 10 WJZ was first class. In the afternoon and earlier evening it had been somewhat noisy. Shortly after 10 WOC, WSAI, WJAX and other DX stations showed considerable pep and a trifle of static. WBAL, WAAT, WBBM, WBMS and other short wave stations, including the still unidentified station from which advertisements are read by a stumbling reader, also showed considerable strength and static noises. WDBZ will broadcast another Kingolico program, at 6:30 this evening.

The Tiffany of Low-Priced Cars

If you belong among the particular buyers of low-priced cars the Star is specifically designed for you

Out of every one hundred buyers of motor cars eighty-five purchase low-priced cars. Although most of these eighty-five buy because of low cost alone, there are the select few who also insist upon style and smartness. It is for these that the Star is built. It is intentionally a proud car for proud buyers.

All we ask is that you DRIVE A STAR before you decide that any other low-priced car is "just as good." Then buy the car that suits you best.

BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION WILL NOT HINDER REGATTA

In a conference with J. W. Rollins of Boston, vice-president of the Blakeslee Rollins Corporation, which is constructing the west pier of the mid-Hudson bridge, Maxwell Stevenson and Reynolds Benson, officials of the regatta to be held at Poughkeepsie on June 29, were assured that the construction work would not interfere with the boat races to be held on the Hudson. The barges being used at the pier will be removed for the regatta in which the leading colleges of the country will take part, according to a despatch to the New York World Tribune.

The first race will be between the west shore and the first pier of the Poughkeepsie bridge and outside the site of the west pier of the new bridge. Institutions to clash in the regatta have been accepted by all of the colleges which took part in last year's event. Columbia's crew will be the first to splash in the Hudson. The regatta representing this institution will arrive in Poughkeepsie on June 3 after the races at Philadelphia. Whomans plans to send a variety and freshman crew to compete. California is scheduled as to whether she will send the or three crews to race on the Hudson. Washington to defend its title will send a variety eight and a junior variety or freshman crew. The Navy will have its variety eight on the river. The other colleges, members of the I. R. A., will be represented by three crews.

The Saint in Politics

The president of the Young Men's Republican club of Chicago is named St. Peter. His given name doesn't count as far as this story is concerned. He came to Indianapolis and put up at a hotel. An Indianapolis woman, much interested in the Republican party, called by phone at this hotel and asked: "Is Mr. St. Peter there?" "St. Peter has not come down yet," replied the hotel phone girl, not knowing she had made the "wrong crack" of the day from that exchange—the Indianapolis News.

Demand for Red Diamonds

Demand for the rare red diamond has become so great since the finding of the huge crimson stone in the Transvaal recently that prices are shooting and owners are desperately hunting for more of the gems. The 10-carat diamond from the Transvaal that has attracted so much attention is valued at nearly $15,000, while a 6-carat stone noted last April brought $4,000. A perfect ruby-red diamond commanded a price of $4,000 a carat, while an almost perfect "white" diamond recently was sold for $120 a carat.

Turning of the Worm

In the drama "Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee" the student were told "turn." Two questions from Shakespeare is usually regarded as the origin of the expression.

Quits China

Mrs. John Van A. MacLurray, wife of the United States Minister to China, is leaving Peking for the United States. Wives of other diplomats are with her to escape possible violence in the event of anti-foreign outbursts.

Meaning of Names

Joseph is of Hebrew origin, meaning "He shall add." Vincent is Latin and signifies "conquering, victorious." Sylvia, also Latin, means "of the woods." Catherine, Greek, signifies "pure," and Eva, Hebrew, "life."

School Lessons by Radio

Instruction by wireless is broadcast by the Netherlands department of public instruction for the benefit of the children of barge-men. These children cannot attend school regularly as they are moving about all the year.

Rich and Heart-Hungry Americans Turn to Europe for Babies—Particularly Girls—for Adoption

More American couples are looking for babies for adoption, especially girls, than ever before, and the supply is less than the demand, it has been discovered in New York. Americans are now adopting English children in large numbers. Photo shows some New York babies for which there is a demand, but which can't be adopted.

NEW YORK (U.N. Special)—Your paper may some time carry daily reports of this general nature:

BABIES: The market closed at 100 and unusually active. Canadian interest reached a new high for the year. Northern states fell off a point, but rallied toward the close. There was a strong demand for infants, due to the great shortage.

For there is developing an international trade in babies. It's a trade thriving, not on necessary gains, but on gains in happiness.

Hundreds of wealthy families are seeking, through adoption, the joy that only babies can bring. The demands have far exceeded the supply. No matter how fine the home, there must be long waits, sometimes ending in disappointment, for youngsters, particularly children under six, and more particularly for girls.

Americans are turning to England.

Despite the difficulties made by the immigration law, there are many who are seeking infants abroad. So great is the demand that protests are arising there. Britons point out that there aren't enough babies to supply their own demand; in fact, requests for American babies have come from both England and later on.

Canada.

France has a law prohibiting any of its children to be adopted by foreigners, and Germany prohibits foreigners under the age of fifty-four years from adopting a baby.

Girls are in greater demand, according to Miss Sophie Van S. Theis, secretary of the child placing committee of the State Charities Aid Association, because adopters think them less likely to cause heart-aches.

Gigantic Pie

One hundred years ago, a gigantic pie was lifted out of the oven. The cook was Mrs. Tagg of Ecclestone, England. The pie contained a goose, a hare, a turkey, a brace of pheasants, a couple of rabbits, two pigeons, a couple of partridges and two tongues. It was a culinary masterpiece, measuring two yards long, a yard wide and two feet deep, outdoing the famous "sing a song of sixpence" blackbird pie.

Repairing Flood Damage Costs Kansas Millions

Great areas in Kansas have damage mounting into millions to repair, following disastrous floods. Photo shows train wrecked at Flatrock Creek, near St. Paul, Kan., by raging waters.

Where a New Battle Line May Be Drawn

With the massing of Russian troops at a point along the Trans-Siberian Railway and on the border (heavily dotted line) between Manchuria and Siberia, a war between Russian and Northern Chinese is held imminent. The mobilization is regarded as a development of the Soviet protest against the Chinese raids on the Soviet Legation in Peking.

Famous Early American

Stephen Girard was born near Bordeaux, France, May 24, 1750. He took to a seafaring life, became master of a sailing vessel, then owner of several ships in the American coasting and West Indian trade. He settled in Philadelphia, increased his fleet, and amassed a fortune, the greater part of which was left to found and endow Girard College for Orphans in Philadelphia. He was regarded, at the time of his death, as the wealthiest man in the United States, although compared to some modern notions his fortune was perhaps only a modest one—some $3,000,000.

Unclaimed Riches

Hundreds of thousands of dollars in cash are taken annually from the mails in the United States where letters have been improperly addressed and delivery is impossible. One post office alone took $125,000 in cash from such letters, although in this instance $25,000 of it was returned to the sender. The other letters had no return address on them. This same post office reported $100,000 perfectly blank envelopes with letters inside deposited in the mails in one year.

Synthetic Products

Synthetic means putting together, and it is, therefore, the opposite of analysis, which means taking apart, splitting up into its constituent parts. In chemistry, synthesis is making rapid strides, and substances are made now synthetically to such an extent as to do away with the necessity in some cases of producing them by natural means. The production of indigo is a striking illustration of this fact.

THEN and NOW

And here is Theodore Roosevelt, son of the late President, as he looked twenty years ago and today. Then he was a football player at Harvard; now he's a politician of note.

Plan for Tolerance

You can't get along with other people if you carry old grudges. Bright people must learn to be tolerant and tolerant with slower people, and you must learn to compare yourself frankly, honestly and fairly with other people.—Albert E. Whigam.

"Source Books"

An idea is a seed. A "source book" is a book containing sources of information on any given subject, including a list of reference books, suggestions and similar data by means of which an exhaustive study of the subject may be made.

Mundy Thursday to be Kept With Ancient Ceremony Commemorating the Institution of the Mass—Sector to French the Three Hours—Easter Plans.

Holy Week is being kept at the church of the Holy Cross with Mass each day at 7:15 a. m., a service for children each afternoon at 4 o'clock, prayers, devotions and sermon every evening at 8 o'clock. But the most important part of the week being from Good Friday on, there will be services of an especially moving character. On Wednesday, called in the church calendar "Mundy Thursday," at 9:30 a. m. in commemoration of the Mass of Lord's Supper, a high Mass will be sung with full choir and ceremonial, followed by the presentation of the Blessed Sacrament to the altar of repose, where watch will be kept by the faithful until Good Friday night can be celebrated. This watch is kept in memory of the watch kept before His tomb. Hundreds of people will visit the Blessed Sacrament to offer their prayers and make request. The procession escorting the Host to the altar of repose is one of great beauty, many altar boys with lighted candles, women smoking with incense, and little girls, all in white and veiled, scattering flowers. The chapel of repose is always elaborately decorated with flowers. The musical program Thursday at Holy Cross will be:

Prélude—Intermezzo Rhynerberger
Wardell Clark
Kyrie Eleison (Mass in G)
—Sir John Martin
Gloria in Excelsis (Mass in G)
—Martin
Sequence—By Christ Redeemed, in Christ Restored Counselor
Credo (Mass in G) Martin
Sanctus—Love Divine Stainer
The Heilmensortel and Mr. La Tour.
Agustus and Benedictus (Mass in G)
—Martin
Agnus Dei (Mass in G) Martin
During the procession—Fange Linde
Saram Plainsong, Mode III
during the stripping of the altars—
Vexilla Regis Plainsong
Prélude—Angels Serenade
—Schubert

On Good Friday the Mass of the Most Holy and Sanctified, reproaches and veneration of the cross will be performed at 7:15 a. m., and the rector will preach on the "Seven Last Words of Christ," uttered from the cross, from noon until 3 o'clock. At four hour the church bell will toll thirty-three strokes, the years of Our Saviour's life on earth, to call the community's attention to the completion of the sacrifice of God for the redemption of man. People will be able to enter and leave the church at Night, giving such time as they can by a deathbed of humanity's Redeemer.

The program for Easter day will include Masses for Holy Communion at 6:30 and 7:30 a. m.; a sermon; and the children's festival, vespers and benediction at 4 p. m. Franz Schubert's superb musical composition for the Mass, Mass F, will be sung by the full choir. Dr. Josephine Heimsmoertel will sing the time of the Offertory Handel's "Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

Fire at Nodena.

About 2 o'clock Sunday morning a fire was discovered in the garage owned by Oscar Smith at Nodena. It was sent to the New Parks company which responded at once. With a terrific wind blowing from the south-east, flames roared up the side of the building, threatening the help of neighbors who had a bucket brigade, the barn and three other buildings were threatened. Luckily all farming implements, some Ford truck and Keweenaw, Mr. and Mrs. O. Smith's and others, were saved. The friends of Nodena, who thank the friends and neighbors, for their help.

"Father, what makes five dollars so poor?"

"Son, I've told you money isn't so long out of the hand."

* ELLENVILLE *

Ellenville, April 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, Jr., of Richmond Hill, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Arnold of Oboas Park, L. I., spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson of Bloomer street.

Clarence Lopke of Richmond Hill, L. I., spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lopke of Ulster Heights.

The Sunday School Board of the Methodist Church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sherman, Elling Court, on Tuesday evening, April 12.

Ben Miller entertained the cast of characters of the post-graduate play, "Junetide," at his home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. C. C. Low and Mrs. Jessie B. Delaney entertained at the former's home at pinocle last Tuesday evening. Prizes were awarded to Miss Anne Richards, Miss Ada C. Holmes and Miss Agnes Greiser.

Miss Viola Wright is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Wright, on South Main street.

Robert Shurter has returned to Amherst College, having recovered from an attack of tonsillitis, which forced him to remain at his home here for a week after his spring vacation.

Miss Alice Watson, who has been employed at the Lakeville Country Club at Great Neck, L. I., underwent an operation at the Polyclinic Hospital, New York city, last week and is reported doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Mae Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Potter, has recovered from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Elizabeth Byrnes, who has a position at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, was a guest at the Wayside Inn over the past week end. She stopped here after spending a week's vacation in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Strauss have taken the apartments formerly occupied by Chief W. F. Ross and wife, in the Keeler building.

Bert M. Terrillinger has returned to his home here after spending six weeks at Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Francis R. Doyle, senior at Yale University, has been spending several days in this village.

The members of the Ellenville High School Post-Graduate Club enjoyed admirably presented the play "Junetide" on April 6 and 7. It was a three act comedy and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience who filled the high school auditorium.

Andrew Smith, of this village, while at work on the roof of Joseph Bennett's house on Maple avenue, slipped and fell to the ground. Luckily he sustained no injuries, but his clothes were broken and shaking.

A large number of members of the Tribe of Porachanna of this village attended the Liberty Lodge last Tuesday.

day evening. The trip was made in Van Klenck's bus.

John Kuhlmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuhlmann, of Cantonville, sustained a fractured collarbone while at play on the Central School grounds last Monday.

Miss Jane McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McDowell, is driving a pretty new gray and white coupe.

The Standard Bearers' Society of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of the Misses Mildred and Augusta Johnson on Thursday evening, April 14, at 8 o'clock.

Rudolph Abel of New York city has returned to spend the summer here.

PLATTEKILL GRANGE HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING.

Seventy-five members attended the regular meeting of Plattekill Grange on Saturday evening, April 9. The home economic committee called attention to the diphtheria clinic to be held at Community Hall, Modena, on April 15. The building committee announced that Charles Titus of Walkkill had been awarded the contract for erecting the proposed addition to the hall and work would begin this week. Twenty-three membership applications have been received for the initiation class in May. Any prospective members should file their applications at the next meeting, April 23, as there will be none accepted for the May class after that date.

The program consisted mainly of a hotly contested debate on the question, "Resolved, that the average New York farm boy of today will find greater opportunities in farming than in town or city occupations." The affirmative side of the question was upheld by John Hecht, Willmot Deuninton and Mrs. Charles Everett. Mr. and Mrs. Gerow Wilkins and Mrs. W. J. Van Wyck argued for the negative side. The debate was most interesting and entertaining. Many good arguments were presented by both sides. J. M. Chase, Dr. Charles Johnston and Mrs. J. W. Taylor acted as judges and rendered a decision in favor of the affirmative with a margin of 7 points.

Other features of the program were: Piano solo by Albert Crook; a reading "The Book Arcot," by William Brock and a bird questionaire conducted by the lecturer, Roffa. Hot franks and coffee were served liberally by the refreshment committee.

The next meeting on April 23 will be in charge of the home economic committee and will constitute an observance of better homes week. A most interesting program is being arranged with opportunity for dancing at the close of the meeting. The refreshment committee will be Mr. and Mrs. N. Coleman, Mrs. S. Drouillard, Harry Loewy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brock and Mrs. Jennie Brock.

Home Bureau District Meeting

Ulster County Well Represented at Southeastern District Meeting at Troy on Thursday and Friday.

An afternoon, an evening, and a morning will be spent by Home Bureau delegates from this section in Troy, April 14 and 15, at the annual meeting of the Southeastern District of the New York State Federation. Discussion of genuine interest to all farm women will be led by interesting speakers at the day-time meetings, and a motion picture will add a new note to the banquet in the evening.

The features of the opening session the afternoon of Thursday, will be a practical talk on "Roadside Marketing" by H. Deane Phillips of the Bureau of Markets, and a report from other district meetings by Mrs. Edward Young, of Milton, president of the State Federation. There will also be reports from county bureaus, and committees for the year will be appointed. Officers' reports will also be made. This meeting will be held at 2:30 in the Y. W. C. A. Hall at 21 First street.

The banquet, always well worth while, will be held at seven o'clock in the Hendrik Hudson Hotel. An interesting film, "The Yoke of the Past," will be shown through the courtesy of the Brooklyn Edison Company.

Friday morning, again in the Y. W. Hall, officers will be elected, and committees will report. Federation matters will be discussed by Mrs. Young and Miss Martha Van Keneslaer of the State College at Ithaca. A new topic which will interest Home Bureau women will be Y. W. C. A. work in rural communities. Mrs. Grace Powell and Miss Anna M. Clarke will speak. Mrs. Powell is well known to all bureau people; she preceded Mrs. Young as president of the Federation. She has been taking an active part in national Y. W. C. A. affairs within the past two years. Miss Clarke, who spoke at Ithaca last winter, is on the National Board staff of the Y. W. in New York in the rural communities department, and is well qualified to lead the discussion.

Delegates from Ulster county who will go to Troy will include Mrs. William A. Warren, who is president of the Southeastern District of the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus and who will have charge of the meeting. Other people who are going from Ulster are Mrs. Edward Young, president of the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus, Mrs. Louis LeFevre of Forest Glen and Mrs. E. J. Hunt of Lomontville.

BUSINESS CERTIFICATES FILED WITH COUNTY CLERK

A certificate has been filed under the assumed business name law by Arnold F. Schoen of Saugerties that he is conducting a business in Ulster county under the name and style, "A. F. Schoen Publishing Company."

Louis M. Ellenbogen of 96 Broadway, Kingston, has certified that he is conducting a business under name and style, "Kingston Paper Company."

Dessa M. Lazarus of Linderman avenue, Kingston, has filed a certificate that she intends to conduct a business of confectionary, ice cream and other sweets under the name, "Broadway Sweet Shop."

HOLY WEEK SERVICES AT FREE METHODIST CHURCH

A large congregation again greeted Evangelist Simpson at the Free Methodist Church on Tremper avenue on Wednesday night. He sang a solo which was especially appreciated, and preached an impressive sermon. When the invitation was given there was response. Service will be held every evening at 7:45.

There will be a Good Friday afternoon prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Elsie Myers Pitts, 19 Downs street, at 2:30. Evangelist Simpson will conduct this prayer meeting and any one who can attend is invited.

Work in Locomotive Cab

Account was kept recently of the effort exerted by the men at the throttle and the fireman in making a run of less than 200 miles. On that 200-mile trip they perform 8,128 individual acts, which are divided up as follows: Steam throttle is operated 236 times; the whistle, 200; brake valve, 90; blower valve, 119; air line valve, 90; bell ringer, 200; lead, 90; right injector, 200; left injector, 90; water-gauge tests, 90; and operating brake and discharge valve, 232.

In addition to all these activities, there is the need to watch with all the signals, junctions, highway crossings, passenger stations, bridges, culverts and trestles. Taking all this physical and mental work into consideration it was estimated that 80 foot-tons of effort are required in making the round trip in question.

It's all very well to have courage and skill. And it's fine to be counted a star. But the single deed with its touch of thrill. Doesn't tell us the man you are. For there's no lone hand in the game we play. We must work to a bigger scheme, And the thing that counts in the world today. Is how do you pull with the team?

Celebrated 83rd Birthday.

Now that an autobus runs within a short distance of his home he comes to town daily to reminisce with old friends.

Eliza Jane met her mistress just before Christmas with ominous announcement: "Miss Mary, I got to leave you."
"Why, Eliza, aren't you satisfied with your place?"
"Oh, yes, I'm satisfied aw right. 'Tain't dat, mum."
"Well, do you want more wages?"
"No, 'tain't dat. I'll tell you how it is. You recollect you let me off a month ago to attend a funeral? Well, mum, I'm gwine to marry de corpse's husband."

Gladys—You remember, you told me that if I'd put a piece of that wedding cake under my pillow I would dream about my future husband?
Clarice—Well, did you?
Gladys—That's what worries me; I dreamt about the Seventh Regiment.

Not Expected Here.

A crowd of troubles passed him by. As, he with courage waited; He said, "Where do you troubles fly? When you are thus be-lated?"
"We go," they said, "to those who mope."

Who look on life dejected, Who meekly say good-bye to hope, We go where we're expected. We don't know where the above lines originated, but there's a heap of truth in them for us all. Think it over.

Father—Has Gladys gone to the dance yet?
Mother—She must have. Most of her clothes are here.

Men no longer hide behind women's skirts. Neither do women.

Clerk (leaving)—"How about a reference?"
Boss—"You'll get a job better without the one I'd give you."

Health Board Met Tuesday

But little business was brought to the attention of the board of health at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the city hall. Dr. Mark O'Meara and Samuel S. Brown, recently appointed members of the board, attended, their first meeting that evening.

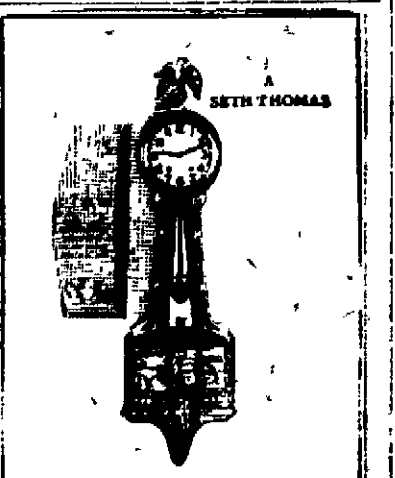

Dr. Daniel Connolly, city health officer, said that a nurse from the state department while in Kingston recently had expressed the opinion that Mrs. Kirchner, who has been conducting a maternity hospital at No. 11 Staples street for many years with great success, needed a license from the board of health. As Mrs. Kirchner was always willing to cooperate she had accordingly filed an application when the matter was called to her attention. The permit was unanimously granted by the board.

Bills and claims were read and audited. The reports of the officers of the work done during March were read and filed. They will be found elsewhere.

The board then adjourned.

WAS THE WATCH YOU CARRY NEW... WHEN HANSOMS RULED THE STREETS?

A watch may never lose a second yet be many years slow

The owner of such a watch may never miss a train or an appointment but it is the one false note in his modern makeup, probably the only thing he has that stamps him as a bit old-fashioned, a trifle behind the times. And yet a new and modish Elgin can be had at a moderate sum. Slipped into your pocket, or strapped on your wrist, it will win and hold your affection as no other watch possibly can. For Elgin is conceded to be the world's standard for watch integrity.
